

PLACE MATTERS KEYNOTE LECTURE

Friday 27 October 2006

At the UW Center for Urban Horticulture, 3501 NE 41st Street

Placematters: Seeking Equity in a Diverse Society is funded by the Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity

All exhibition materials are authored by faculty, students, and alumni of academic institutions throughout the state of Washington

Conference Co-chairs

Susan P. Kemp, PhD, Associate Professor of Social Work

Sharon E. Sutton, PhD, FAIA, Professor of Architecture

Agenda

06:00 PM Placematters Exhibition Opens

Music

Refreshments

07:00 PM Welcome

Dr. Sheila Edwards Lange, Interim Vice President, Office of Minority Affairs

Introduction of the Keynote Speaker

Dr. Sharon E. Sutton, Co-chair

Fountains, Candy Stores, and Sand: Thoughts on Placemaking

Dr. Mindy Thompson Fullilove, Columbia University Medical Center Department of Psychiatry

08:30 PM Book Signing

Placemaking Exhibition

Urban Archives: The City as Spectacle, Laboratory, and Text

Georgia Aiello, Tom Dobrowolsky, and Irina Gendelman, UW Urban Archives

Placemaking in Western US: Fifty Years of Chinese Immigrant Dis/Place/Ment

Karen Bancroft, UW Social Work

The Salishan HOPE VI Evaluation Project

Kathy Brennan et. al, Northwest Institute for Children and Families

The Grief of Losing Place

Barbara S. Bruce, Washington State University Interdisciplinary Program

Voces Comunitarias: A South Park Photovoice Exhibit

Julio Cruz, Kindra Galan, Kyla Frajman, Alyssa Palermo, Selena Frajman, and Charlie Smith, South Park Photovoice Youth Photographers Coordinated by Antoinette Angulo

"We write not only about different things; we also write differently." Queer Youth and Knowledge of Place

Joseph F. Dial, Seattle Central Community College English

Designing Disruption: A Typology for Architectural Resistance

Yamani Hernandez, UW Architecture

"They had tons of space to move their arms:" Youth Perceptions of Segregated Spaces in Their Education

Katie Johnston GoodStar and Dr. Ratnesh Nagda, UW Social Work, and Lori Markowitz, Bridges to Learning

Planning and Cultural Diversity in White Center, Washington

Michelle Kondo, UW College of Architecture and Urban Planning

Social Distance and Physical Isolation: Race, Health, and the African Diaspora

Dr. Clarence Spigner, UW Health Sciences

Music

Dr. Marisol Berríos-Miranda, Keyboard, UW Latin American Studies and Music

Dr. Shannon Dudley, Steel Pans, UW Ethnomusicology

Refreshments

Bay Laurel Catering